many months later when the thief decided to go to the village, what happend?

The thief went to the village disguised as a traveling salesman, expecting to find Kavery with hidden treasure. He stayed at Kavery's house and planned to steal her jewels. Kavery discovered his plan and cleverly tricked him by saying her aunt was alone at night and needed to stay with her. She even claimed to have hidden the jewels in a safe spot in the forest. When the thief went to look for the supposed treasure in the forest, Kavery watched him with a grin, knowing she had outsmarted him again.

write down the summary of the topic 'The Enchanted Scorpions'

The enchanted scorpions are a hidden treasure hidden by Uday's ancestors. Uday sells his ancestral home and stumbles upon a sealed box filled with scorpions. When he asks the wise old man in the village what's happened, the man reveals that the box was enchanted and only family members could see the hidden treasure inside. Uday is saddened by this revelation, realizing what he lost. Siddharth keeps the enchanted box safe and even puts real scorpions around his shop to test people's reactions to it. Ultimately, Uday claims his rightful inheritance and remembers Siddharth's honesty always.
